Qualifications

• Interest in the Library System and its services
• Able to contribute adequate time for participation in Board activities
• Can represent needs and varied interests in the community at large and Library System
• Has strong interpersonal and communications skills
• Can work with governmental bodies, agencies and system libraries
• Can handle opposition and make decisions in the interest of Library System Service

Responsibilities of Individual Board Members

Each individual board member is expected to:

• Know the organization’s mission, policies, programs, and needs as well as understand its collective purpose
• Understand that all power rests with the full board, not individual members
• Comply with applicable laws, regulations, by-laws, policies and code of ethics
• Faithfully read and understand the organization’s financial statements and board materials in advance of meetings
• Serve as active advocates and ambassadors for the organization
• Leverage connections, networks, and resources to achieve the organization’s mission
• Help identify personal connections that can benefit the organization’s fundraising and reputational standing, and influence public policy
• Prepare for, attend, and conscientiously participate in board meetings
• Participate fully in one or more committees
• Engage in learning opportunities to better understand the community we serve
• Respect the experiences of all who bring their voices and lived experiences into the boardroom and the organization, as well as respect the decisions the board reaches as a body of the whole
Responsibilities of the Board

The mission of the Illinois Heartland Library System is to support member libraries of all types in providing quality library services. IHLS facilitates access to shared resources, advocates for libraries, promotes innovation and develops community partnerships.

As the highest leadership body of the organization and to satisfy its fiduciary duties, the board is responsible for:

- Determining the mission of the organization and understanding its collective purpose
- Determine and adopt written policies to govern the operation and services provided
- Selecting, supporting, and evaluating the performance of the executive director
- Strategic and organizational planning
- Ensuring strong fiduciary oversight and financial management
- Fundraising and resource development
- Approving and monitoring the organization’s programs and services
- Enhancing the organization’s public image
- Assessing its own performance as the governing body of the organization
- Ensuring legal and ethical integrity

Additional responsibilities of board members include:

- Uphold the legal duties and laws regarding library system governance
- Follow the organization’s bylaws, policies, and board resolutions
- Sign an annual conflict-of-interest disclosure and update it during the year, if necessary, as well as disclose potential conflicts before meetings and actual conflicts during meetings
- Maintain confidentiality about all internal matters of the organization

Meeting Information

The Illinois Heartland Library System meets at 5:00 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month (except for December) at the IHLS Carbondale, Champaign and Edwardsville locations, in addition to other designated public locations.