New Business

IHLS Staff Focus

Leslie Bednar shared how the new Marketing Coordinator has been able to bring the staff to a greater understanding of this concept. Also, helping to make sure outgoing communications are now more consistent.

School Library Visits

IMAGINING TOMORROW ~ DELIVERING POSSIBILITIES TODAY!

Ellen Popit said having two staff members dedicated to members will help increase school visits, and it will be easier to be responsive to needs as they arise. Janet Jenkins said she missed the consulting previously offered by the system. Ellen Popit explained how consulting was eliminated during the 2010 downturn through direction from the Illinois State Library.

Administrator's Academy

Ellen Popit is working on having an IHLS presence at Administrator's Academy. IHLS to offer swag and potentially be on site to greet attendees and share benefits of system membership.

IHLS and AISLE (Association of Illinois School library Educators)

IHLS will be at the Association of School Library Educators conference (AISLE) in October; Ellen Popit is the system liaison to the AISLE board of directors; Leslie Bednar emphasized that IHLS would offer AISLE support as needed. Janet Jenkins suggested the possibility of the system sponsoring a bus to take down state librarians to the conference next year. Melanie Weigel suggested the possibility of IHLS also providing a scholarship for a school librarian to attend next year.

Next Steps

The next committee meeting will be held after AISLE and IHLS Member Day to give chance for staff and board members to meet with school librarians at both events, network and get ideas for moving forward. Ellen Popit asked for recommendations from members of school libraries that are struggling to give staff direction when planning visits and suggested a newsletter article to announce the system is broadening outreach and encourage members who would like a visit to contact IHLS.
