1581	08/03/2015 - 16:07	Anonymous (not verified)	66.163.110.82	Nancy Seamands	A. Herr Smith & E.E. Smith Library	This is what libraries will need to do to stay viable. Hopefully to keep the community using the library.	217-386-2783	knabsea@prairieinet.net
1578	08/01/2015 - 12:21	Anonymous (not verified)	96.35.20.232	Deborah Owen	Glen Carbon Centennial LD	Now that I read the Mission Statement after reading the rest, I hope when the final document is created, you do have some very specific objectives for "empowering" libraries.	618-581-1860	dmowen21@gmail.com
1573	08/01/2015 - 05:36	Anonymous (not verified)	208.124.73.131	Susan Yallaly	Teutopolis High School	I agree that these statements should be simple & direct, but this one leaves me hanging. Embrace innovation & collaboration for what purpose? To achieve what goal? - To serve the needs of our patrons? To empower member libraries to grow & change within a dynamic culture? Other?	217-369-0580	yallalys@ttown.k12.il.us

1590	08/11/2015 - 12:16	Anonymous (not verified)	12.10.85.2	Jennifer Lara	O'Fallon Township High School Library	Should this, "libraries of all types providing quality library services," have the word "in" included? Should it read "libraries of all types in providing quality library services"? The way it is phrased now could mean that IHLS does not support libraries that have subpar services.		laraj@oths.us
1586	08/08/2015 - 08:03	Anonymous (not verified)	184.20.192.101	Deb Sherrick	Greenup Township Public Library	I would change the first phrase: "To support member libraries of all types by providing quality library services." The current phrase indicates that libraries which do not provide quality library services will not be supported by IHLS.	217-923-3616	greenuptownshiplibrary@gmail.com
1582	08/03/2015 - 16:10	Anonymous (not verified)	66.163.110.82	Nancy Seamands	A. Herr Smith & E.E. Smith Library	I think that is a good mission statement. It's what library systems should do.	217-386-2783	knabsea@prairieinet.net
1575	08/01/2015 - 12:07	Anonymous (not verified)	96.35.20.232	Deborah Owen	Glen Carbon Centennial LD	In the first sentence please clarify. Are the member libraries providing quality services or is the library system? Where does education fit in? That is one thing now missing from the current library system offerings. As a trustee, I see a huge need to education of staff and trustees. That's how we can best provide quality library services. Knowledge!	6185811860	dmowen21@gmail.com
1572	08/01/2015 - 05:31	Anonymous (not verified)	208.124.73.131	Susan Yallaly	Teutopolis High School	Sounds good. I can think of nothing more to add.	217-369-0580	yallalys@ttown.k12.il.us

1592	08/11/2015 - 12:24	Anonymous (not verified)	12.10.85.2	Jennifer Lara	O'Fallon Township High School Library	Needs consistency with either "&" or "and" and consistency with capitalization - Would read better if parallel structure was used for each bullet point		laraj@oths.k12.il.us
1587	08/08/2015 - 08:08	Anonymous (not verified)	184.20.192.101	Deb Sherrick	Greenup Township Public Library	I have never heard of "values" being adopted but I like what I have read.	217-923-3616	greenuptownshiplibrary@gmail.com
1583	08/03/2015 - 16:15	Anonymous (not verified)	66.163.110.82	Nancy Seamands	A. Herr Smith & E.E. Smith Library	I agree with those values.	217-38602783	knabsea@prairieinet.net
1580	08/03/2015 - 14:28	Anonymous (not verified)	66.116.63.173	Nina Pals	Sarah Bush Lincoln Health System	I think the innovation piece is integral to libraries thriving. I've missed that since the merger of th systems - not that you haven't had your hands full since the merger. I like all of the ideas above and hope we can move forward with them.	217-258-2262	npals@sblhs.org
1576	08/01/2015 - 12:09	Anonymous (not verified)	96.35.20.232	Deborah Owen	Glen Carbon Centennial LD	Once again, I see no mention of education. Yes, there is collaboration, and working together and engagement, but where is education?	6185811860	dmowen21@gmail.com
1571	08/01/2015 - 05:29	Anonymous (not verified)	208.124.73.131	Susan Yallaly	Teutopolis High School	Very complete, yet concise.	217-369-0580	yallalys@ttown.k12.il.us

1593	08/11/2015 - 12:28	Anonymous (not verified)	12.10.85.2	Jennifer Lara	O'Fallon Township High School Library	Missing a word in first bullet point - "be of service their users" Consistency is needed with either "&" or "and"		laraj@oths.k12.il.us
1588	08/08/2015 - 08:14	Anonymous (not verified)	184.20.192.101	Deb Sherrick	Greenup Township Public Library	I was happy and relieved to see #3. Those of us in isolated areas without the means to attend meetings and workshops rely on the system to keep us aware of current library procedures/trends.	217-923-3616	greenuptownshiplibrary@gmail.com
1584	08/03/2015 - 16:20	Anonymous (not verified)	66.163.110.82	Nancy Seamands	A. Herr Smith & E.E. Smith Library	I feel at this time there is no personal interaction with the system. No one particular person to connect with.	217-386-2783	knabsea@prairieinet.net
1579	08/03/2015 - 14:23	Anonymous (not verified)	66.116.63.173	Nina Pals	Sarah Bush Lincoln Health System	I very much like the member engagement and the consulting & CE goals being added. I looked forward to seeing how they will be implemented.	217-258-2262	npals@sblhs.org
1577	08/01/2015 - 12:18	Anonymous (not verified)	96.35.20.232	Deborah Owen	Glen Carbon Centennial LD	Ah, so this is the new reality. The system is nothing more than a conduit through which ideas pass. And lots of buzz words. I've been down this road before. Pretty much libraries are now left on their own. With greater size came less engagement. You do less with less (thank you state of Illinois). Now that I am on the Trustee side of the table I see the need for knowledge (of library laws, financials, policy making, etc.) so that those of us out in the trenches can do our jobs.	618-581-1860	dmowen21@gmail.com
1574	08/01/2015 - 05:39	Anonymous (not verified)	208.124.73.131	Susan Yallaly	Teutopolis High School	Looks good to me. I think you have captured all of the relevant aspects of system libraries, yet maintaining simplicity. Thank you for your time in coordinating these long-range elements.	217-369-0580	yallalys@ttown.k12.il.us
